"A hideous ecstasy...a desire to kill...seemed to flow through the whole group of people like an electric..."

A hideous ecstasy of fear and vindictiveness, a desire to kill, to torture, to smash faces in with a sledge hammer, seemed to flow through the whole group of people like an electric current, turning one even against one's will.

● In 1950, the ANCIENT ORDER's printed word showing the impulses of entire groups of people being controlled by these Laser Ray devices. The "electrical oscillations" control applied to a large number of persons at the same time. Notice the "electric" reference on the very first page of 1984, which is page 5.

"...at present the electric current was cut off...in preparation for Hate Week."

One of the main impulses the ANCIENT ORDER controls is the desire to hate. They use this to keep people angry and antagonistic toward each other. People betraying one another is a running theme throughout this book. These people hate each other but fear and respect their controllers, the effect of these Laser Rays. They introduced the "electric" control and one of the results ("Hate") on the very first page of this book, printed right after a world war started purely out of hatred.

● The Beast of Burden code is BOB, 202... Notice the "electric" reference on page 202 of 1984.

"...he had a feeling that some mortal injury was being done to him. He did not know whether the thing was really happening, or whether the effect was electrically produced..."

because he could not see what was happening, and he had the feeling that some mortal injury was being done to him. He did not know whether the thing was really happening, or whether the effect was electrically produced; 202

The ANCIENT ORDER's doctors' impulses are perfect, absolutely perfect and indistinguishable from the body's own. These impulses have been researched from many, many other people for over one hundred and fifty(150) years.

● When these impulses are placed inside a person or group, community, city, etc., those people's bodies process the impulses as if they are their own. The subjects then carry out those desires, having no idea anything was done to them. The ANCIENT ORDER makes people whatever it wants them to be. Notice page 210 to 211 of 1984.

"The command of the old despotisms was 'Thou shalt not'. The command of the totalitarians was 'Thou shalt'. Our command is 'Thou art'."

This is the ANCIENT ORDER saying, "We will accept nothing less than determining what you are." That has applied to millions and millions of people for over 150 years, without them knowing it.
